MOUNTAIN MEN PLAN LYNCHING

Leggett Trial Develops Attempt to Secure Jail Delivery to Hang Prisoner

ITAHIL, Okla., Sept. 30.—Roscoe and Horace Stepon, Rhineland mountain outlaws, in order to avenge the death of their brother, Virgil, who was assassinated in the mountains, are planning further revenge from the McCurtain county jail of W. S. Leggett, or with involving Virgil's widow and the execution of Leggett proposed at the end of a trial. To effect their plan, they asked the assistance of Warren Phillips, their old-time prosecuting attorney, to whom they related all important details of their scheme, ending with the declaration that Tom Leggett, who was coming to jail, would be treated in the same manner as Virgil.

This was followed by the testimony of Phillips, who advised for the defense that the man James Leggett, charged with the murder of Roscoe Stepon, was guilty of the offense committed against both men.

It was also agreed that the trial date for the defense was set for the 10th instant.

Witnesses for the defense just testified that the restoration of the streets in the Rhineland country was bad.

The testimony showed that the defense was present for the removal of the condemned man, and were given every facility.

The Rhineland bandit trial was proposed to the court.
